The adviser profile – part 2 to this FSG

Prior to providing any personalised financial advice products and/or services our advisers are required to provide you with a copy of this FSG along with an Adviser Profile

The Adviser Profile forms part 2 to this FSG and contains important information about your Adviser. This includes their Authorised Representative number and/or Corporate Authorised Representative number (if applicable), accreditations, qualifications and experience, areas of advice and types of financial services they can provide, details of how they get paid and fees that you may be charged.

If you have not received an Adviser Profile, please ask your adviser for a copy or contact us (see page 6 for contact details).

Documents you may receive

If you decide to obtain personal financial advice, your adviser will need to determine your needs, objectives and relevant financial circumstances.

At the initial advice appointment, your adviser will typically gather the relevant information by using a client data collection form. You will be asked to provide accurate information about your personal and financial situation and keep your adviser informed of any changes to your relevant circumstances.

Your adviser will also need to verify your identity.

When your adviser provides personal financial advice to you, you may receive one or more of the following documents:

- Statement of Advice (SoA)
- Record of Advice (RoA)
- Product Disclosure Statement (PDS)
- Ongoing Advice Service Agreement (OASA)
- Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS)
- Renewal Notice
- Enhanced Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS)

The SoA will set out the advice that has been tailored to your specific circumstances and provide you with details of all relevant disclosures including details of any remuneration payable.

Where you receive ongoing or further advice, an RoA may be provided.

You may request, in writing, a copy of an RoA or any advice document up to seven (7) years after the advice has been given.

A PDS will be provided if a product recommendation is made and includes detailed information about the financial product including features, benefits, conditions, costs and cooling off rights (if applicable).

An Ongoing Advice Service Agreement details what fees you will be charged, how they are to be collected and the services that will be provided for those fees.

From 1 July 2021 an Enhanced Fee Disclosure Statement (FDS) is provided when a client has an ongoing fee arrangement that exceeds 12 months, this will include the services you were entitled to receive, the services you actually received and the fees you paid for the previous 12 months plus the services you are entitled to receive and the fees you can expect to pay for the next 12 months.

We will require you to opt-into an ongoing fee arrangement every 12 months. You can opt-in a number of ways that allow us to prove consent, however for most clients we expect they will simply sign the enhanced disclosure document and return it to our office via email or post.
